Director's Report:
We have been holding second interviews and have narrowed the search down to two people. As of September 18, we have had 20 new library card registrations. The mug and teddy bear giveaways have been a big hit for the Library Card Sign-Up month. Programming is all set for the rest of the fall and most of the early winter. We are now starting to plan for January, February and March.

Old Business: The library has received many compliments on the 9/11 monument.

New Business:
October 16th is the Fall Vestival event. The library will have a table at the event.
